You are very important. You are the star of the party. But being a participant in an event like this, which bears the name of Brazil and the United States, also means great responsibilities. And these responsibilities begin right during the regional events:

- Fulfill schedules
- Commit yourself during the rehearsals

- Follow the guidance of professionals who will be choreographing, doing hair and makeup as well as members of the production of the event.
- Read the Rules of the event carefully for details
- If you have questions, see the production
- Your social behavior during the event is very important
- Guide your family and friends not to disrupt the production environment and keep themselves out of the tests and activities of the stage. This is VERY IMPORTANT!
- A positive image of Brazilian woman is our biggest commitment. Let's work together to enhance our people and our homeland image.

What are the goals and mission of Miss Brasil-USA?

Miss Brasil-USA is not just a competition for young Brazilian models in search of media exposure and professional opportunities.

These factors are very important and actually many winners, and even candidates who have not attained the title, got the desired exposure and are proving their success in many artistic careers.

However, the real goal of the Miss Brasil-USA is the integration of Brazilian people in the United States and the projection of the beautiful and positive image of Brazilian woman internationally.

Another major goal of the Miss Brasil-USA is to establish friendships and exchange between Brazilian women from various regions of the United States.

Our mission: Brazilian women's beauty and talent to serve a good image of Brazil.
